IMPORTANT CALIFORNIA DISCLOSURE INFORMATION

California campaign reporting rules require the campaign to keep contributor information, including the contributor's full name and street address and, for individual contributors, occupation and employer. Contributions of $100 or more must be itemized on campaign reports. If required information for a contribution of $100 or more is not obtained within 60 days, the contribution must be returned.

Payment note: California law prohibits cash contributions of $100 or more. Contributions of $100 or more by money order, cashier's check, or traveler's check are also prohibited.
